

To whom it may concern:

It is my strong belief that the Telephone privacy Act in Indiana has improved the peace and tranquility in my home. Before this act was in place, my family would receive an average of 7-10 impersonal calls a night. This was very unappreciated. I would strongly wish to see the privacy act continue in its current form.